

GRADUATE (MASTER'S) PROGRAMMES

English Philology

Programme type: graduate (second-cycle)

Study mode: full-time

Number of semesters: 4 (2 years)

Tuition fee: 5200 PLN /year

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

Studying English Philology at MA level, apart from developing practical language skills at a high C2 proficiency level of CEFR for languages, encompasses deepening students' knowledge of selected fields of philological studies.

The students may choose to follow one of offered academic paths and pursue their MA thesis in:

- Literary studies/Cultural studies
- Linguistics/Translation studies.

FUTURE CAREER PROSPECTS

Graduates finish their studies with:

- strong communication skills in English in writing and speaking at C2 level,
- ability to search for information in various sources, to analyze and synthesize information.

They are well prepared for a career in, for example:

- translation and interpretation bureaus
- public relations
- publishing houses
- advertising agencies
- fundraising organizations
- commercial, corporate or other business institutions
- research institutes
- many other fields that require proficient knowledge of English and liberal arts education.

QUALIFICATION CRITERIA FOR FOREIGN CANDIDATES

The admission will be based on the results of the BA diploma grade.

The candidates need to provide a certificate confirming their command of English at C1 level of CEFR for languages.

Check the programme's website here.