(second-cycle)

Study mode: full-time

Number of semesters: 4 (2 years)

Tuition fee: 7200 PLN /year

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

Graduates:

- will have achieved an in-depth knowledge of communication, language, culture, and society.
- They will have explored selected dimensions of linguistics, communication studies, arts and social sciences in the context of the history of human ideas and the functioning of contemporary societies, including their legal and economic perspectives.
- They will have critically considered the main challenges to global well-being, such as cultural hegemony, gender inequality and media manipulation.
- They will have pursued an original interdisciplinary curriculum that culminated in a Master's thesis exploring a chosen problem from a variety of perspectives.

The main difference between the classic Anglo-Saxon MLS and our approach is that we can give you an opportunity to choose a major that will be best suited for you:

- Public communication
- Philosophy, culture, politics
- Entrepreneurship and organizations

QUALIFICATION CRITERIA FOR FOREIGN CANDIDATES

The admission will be based on the results of the BA diploma grade.

The candidates need to provide a certificate confirming their command of English at B2 level of CEFR for languages.
